Favorite Expression: Введение ad zag

The expression that I like most from this set is Введение ad zag

Введение ad zag is a phrase

How do you say it in Russian?

It translates into Russian as Введение ad zag

What does it mean?

It means an introductory paragraph that sets the tone for the rest of the text.

A good synonym for Введение ad zag is introduction

The opposite of Введение ad zag is conclusion

I find this expression engaging because it reminds me of my first day in college when I had to write a long essay and started with a great Введение ad zag that caught the reader's attention.
